The Past in the Present. Look, draw and compare North Sydney from the late 1960s to today.

This is a drawing of North Sydney made in the late 1960s by a primary school learner sitting on the hill near the canon. In the space below, draw what you see now and try to identify the past in the present. What has changed?

In the space below, draw what you think the view will be like in 100 years from now. There's also a little room for some explanatory notes.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a drawing and explanatory notes. The box is currently blank.
