Sydney Observatory Haiku

*Ships tell time from me;
I drop at one every day.
I am the Time Ball.*

This is an example of a haiku - a three-line poem with:
Five syllables in the first line,
Seven syllables in the second,
And five again in the third.

A different type of poem could be:

*Turn, turn, turn
The Earth it always turns.
The sky changes as day becomes night,
night becomes day.
The Earth turns, turns, turns.*

Write a poem in any form about something - an object, a location, or a part of its history - that has inspired you during your adventures in and around Sydney Observatory.
